

MESSAGE FROM THE CO-CHAIRS

July 2018

Dear Volunteer:

Thank you for being Phil!

As you know, “Phil” is short for philanthropy. It’s a name that can refer to anybody who donates to the University of Iowa. And whether or not you’ve donated yet, all UI faculty and staff are Phil, too—because philanthropy affects nearly every aspect of our campus lives.

No matter what you do at Iowa, there’s a good chance that Phil has enhanced your work along the way.

Now it's time for us to give back.

Last year, more than 2,800 UI faculty and staff donated to the University of Iowa, investing in everything on campus from student scholarships and Hawkeye athletics teams, to new buildings and medical research. You helped make that happen. Thank you!

Thank you so much for joining us in leading this year’s We Are Phil campaign, encouraging your UI friends and coworkers to stand with us in support of our remarkable university. Your enthusiasm and dedication will help to keep growing the spirit of philanthropy here on our beloved campus. Thanks for all you do for Iowa!

Sincerely,

2018-2019 We Are Phil faculty/staff giving program co-chairs:
